DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 1 - 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application No. 2004/0022369 (Vitikainen et al.) in view of U.S. Patent Application No. 2003/0152199 (Kuhn et al.)

With respect to claims 1 – 2, 5, 7 - 8, 11, 13 – 14, 17 and 19 - 20 note that Vitikainen et al. teach an answering service where one receives call identification and response instructions from a remote user, receive a call and respond to the call in accordance with the response instructions (see Paragraph 0037 – 0040 and the Abstract). What Vitikainen et al. do not show is identifying a call from user inputs. However, note that Kuhn et al. teach such is well known in the art (see paragraph 0008 of Kuhn et al.). It would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art to have incorporated such identifying via speech inputs into the Vitikainen et al. device as such would only entail the substitution of one known identifying means for another.

With respect to claim 2, note that the identifying means could be a telephone number as the database of Kuhn et al keeps a list of telephone numbers (Fig. 1). Note use of other information in paragraph 0008 and detailed questioning in paragraph 0009 of Kuhn et al.

Art Unit: 2614

With respect to claims 4, 10, and 16 such is inherent in answering services.

With respect to claims 6, 12 and 18, note paragraph 0017 of Vitikainen et al.

Note that the option is being connected to a pre-determined number. Vitikainen et al. only uses the secretarial number as an example of an alternative predetermined number. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have used whatever alternative predetermined number was deemed necessary, like an alternative number of a remote user, as such would only entail the substitution of one alternative predetermined number for another. Even if applicant could prevail on this issue, it is noted that follow-me or chase-me systems are notoriously old in the art and it would have been obvious to use such a system wherever it was deemed necessary.

With respect to claims 3,9 and 15, note paragraph 0008 of Kuhn et al.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 - 20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
